The man who does a great deal of work with his eyes, should be on the watch for the first indications of strain, and do everything possible to prevent it from occurring.

Sometimes the eyes are in such an irritable condition that the wearing of the ordinary "flat" lenses produces great discomfort; light is reflected from the rear surface of the lenses and the eyes are worried by unconsciously tearing the lenses on these reflections.

Then when looking to either side the edges of such lenses annoy the eyes.

These irritations are avoided when you wear Toroid lenses. You are not taking every possible precaution against eye strain; if you do not get a pair of Toroids.

We will be pleased to show you Toric lenses and explain their advantages.

By a goitre. If it is a goitre this sticking to bottom of kettle, can mixture will remove it if rubbed while hot and seal immediately, on every night and morning, it is. Turn upside down and let stand until it will take some time. Rub down until cold. Then put away for a week and with slow, firm pressure. My winter use. My sister had a large goitre and removed it in this way.

MRS. W. P. HIGGINS,
816 Seventh St., City,

Dear Dolly—I have been going with a young man for eight years and I think he is grand, but he will wiggle his ears in church. How can I break him of this habit? What do you think of pranks?

READER.—If it is a goitre this sticking to bottom of kettle, can mixture will remove it if rubbed while hot and seal immediately, on every night and morning, it is. Turn upside down and let stand until it will take some time. Rub down until cold. Then put away for a week and with slow, firm pressure. My winter use. My sister had a large goitre and removed it in this way.

Mrs. A. L. Hammel, of Second street who has just recovered from a serious illness, left Wednesday evening for a brief visit in front of Mrs. John Morrissey, who is recovering from a surgical operation. Mrs. Morrissey is getting along very nicely and continues to improve each day.

Another reader sends the following recipe:

Take 1 peck of green tomatoes, clean up, real fine, put on stove and boil slowly for one hour, then ten. Mrs. Lester Edson, of Adams organization with the exception of two weeks, has moved to the Children's Home, who extended her mother to the present time it impossible to get this place, we made her stay at the present time in the Apple Room, where she is excellent on account of her health.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lake went to front today to talk in the Apple Room, and particularly on account of her health.

Dear Mrs. Wise—Will you please tell me what will make all my skin less greasy?

BLACK EYES.—You should use a great deal of warm water and fairly strong soap on your face. In addition to you would anything else, but why this is often well to sponge off dye an old hat when you can the face with alcohol in order still make a new one for the price of either frame or cover.

You should use a great deal of alcohol, 25 per cent strength is sufficient in the case of an oily skin. A few drops of ammonia or a pinch of borax in the water with which the face is washed is also helpful.

YOUNG MATURE.—The cheese cloth curtains with a wide lace or a pointed edge, are would be inexpensive and pretty. Scrin would be even prettier and would hold its looks better. A plain net curtain with a narrow edge would be better for all purposes. I should say a dark color would be a suitable color, if your rooms are light, otherwise a light cream would be better.

Blue Eyes.—Your writing was so poor that I couldn't make out what you wanted to know. I think, however, that you had better practice writing instead of thinking about the words.

Dear Miss Wise—I waited a long time for a soap for dinner Tomato Mince Meat in Tuesday night's Times, so send you one when you are good.

DEAR TOMATO MINCE MEAT.—I used green potatoes instead of a narrow edge would be better for all purposes. I should say a dark color would be a suitable color, if your rooms are light, otherwise a light cream would be better.

SENSELESS GIRL.—A girl is not very grown up one till she is 18, and even then she is not always quite grown up, though she is old enough by that to be called a lady. One cannot be called a lady, however, if one does not act like a lady, just don't notice your friend when she acts silly, and be as sensible as you know how, that may influence her to be less silly.

DEAR DOLLY.—When one grows into a picture scene and has to pass a whole row of people and take a seat over near the wall, should he face the people whom he has to pass or turn his back on them?

ANXIOUS BILL.—It is more convenient to turn one's back to the persons seated if one is compelled to pass them. It is also necessary to keep the pardon of the people who are thus disturbed, Bill.

DEAR DOLLY.—Will you please tell me where I can get a good bread machine?

DEAR DOLLY.—Phone me No. 1061. I will give you the name and address of a woman who makes flourless cakes.

Giants Strong As Braves

Is there any real reason for assuming the Boston Braves will make a better showing against the Athletics in a world's series than the Giants have, provided the Stallings tribe cops the National League pennant?

Before any attempt can be made to answer this question, one has to take several things into consideration. A mere comparison of the playing strength of the Boston and New York clubs will not get one very far for the simple reason there is more to world's series baseball than hitting, fielding, pitching and base running. Some clubs lose their punch in the final test of the year and fail to show the form in the short series that has characterized their work

Rickey To Shakeup The St. Louis Team

Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Browns, intimated before leaving Detroit the other day that the policy of his administration was about to suffer a radical change. Advises from St. Louis sent out shortly after the Browns homecoming from the most distant road-jacket of the season confirm Mr. Rickey's hint.

From now on his players must deliver or go.

Rickey has, in a word, about decided, after just one year as a professional baseball manager, that his job is somewhat different from that of a college baseball coach. In the latter capacity, while tutoring the baseball boys at Ferry Field, Ann Arbor, he took what came and made the most of them. He's been trying the same tactics in St. Louis. He has taught some of his men a little, others much. But school's over.

Before the season is done it is expected that the Browns will try out a small regiment of young stars. Even the fear of the mat place won't keep any of the bushers out of the line up. The players who have been learning on the bench or in the field all year must show that they have been learning.

It would not be surprising if

Hank Gowdy A Star

Clark Griffith, of the Washington Nationals, says of Boston's best catching boy:

"There is one player who is generally overlooked by the fans when they are looking for reasons for the great spirit of the Boston Braves. That is Hank Gowdy. There are other stars in the club, as there must be in every winning club, but to my way of thinking, the man who has done the most to make the club a consistent winner is Gowdy. With already won his improved wonderfully, and I now consider him to be the best catcher in the National League. He is a good baserunner, has a fine throwing arm, and competent baseball men tell me he is a great judgment behind the bat. He is also a dangerous hitter and his long drives have broken up many a game. Don't make me mistake about this boy being a second-rate catcher. He is just at the age where great catchers shine, and he is shining. I don't know just what I would just as soon have Gowdy on my club as any catcher in the major leagues."

Gowdy is a graduate of the tiny little Ohio State league and his many warm friends here, who are watching his work with great interest.
